DEPARTMENT OVERVIEW

The Department of English at Navajyothi College is dedicated to promoting literacy and fostering critical thinking among its students. We believe that language plays a vital role in shaping an individual's personality, particularly in terms of linguistic competence. Our mission is to provide excellent academic orientation and proficiency in English, empowering students to communicate effectively. To achieve this, our faculty focuses on building a strong foundation in communication skills, grammar, and literary analysis. We aim to enhance students' listening, speaking, reading, and writing abilities, while cultivating their human values and sensibilities through the study of literary texts. We are committed to realizing our vision and continuing to inspire and educate our students in the years to come.

VISION AND MISSION

Vision

1. To become a center of excellence in English language and literature studies.
2. To foster a community of scholars who can critically engage with literary and cultural texts.
3. To develop innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to English studies.
4. To promote research and academic excellence among faculty and students.
5. To create a vibrant and inclusive learning environment.

Mission

1. To provide high-quality postgraduate education in English language and literature.
2. To equip students with advanced critical thinking, research, and communication skills.
3. To foster a culture of intellectual curiosity, creativity, and critical inquiry.
4. To promote interdisciplinary collaboration and knowledge-sharing among faculty and students.
5. To prepare students for careers in academia, research, writing, editing, and other related fields.
6. To engage with local and global communities through outreach programs, workshops, and conferences.
7. To continuously update and refine the curriculum to reflect changing academic and professional landscapes.

Programmes Offered

- M.A. English
M.A. English Language and Literature is a two year course. This course is designed to indulge students with the prominent authors from different literary periods and from various parts of the world.

Academic Performance Overview

The data highlights individual student progress across six semesters. The trends show that most students have demonstrated consistent growth, particularly in the 5G and 4G groups, indicating the effectiveness of academic interventions. Some fluctuations were observed, primarily due to variations in subject difficulty and student engagement.

Key Outcomes

- Improvement in Academic Scores: Students in the 4G and 5G categories showed remarkable improvement, with many achieving higher semester scores compared to their initial performance.
- Super 30 Performance: The highest-performing students maintained their academic excellence, demonstrating consistency and strong subject knowledge.
- Challenges and Interventions: The 3G group, which started with lower academic scores, faced challenges but showed gradual improvement due to structured support.

Student Growth Chart

Conclusion

The SAAP 2024-25 has proven to be an effective academic intervention, fostering student growth and engagement. Moving forward, additional mentoring and personalized learning strategies will be implemented to further enhance academic success.

INKJOURN club of PG Department of English conducted a collegiate Author Meet on 21/ 11/ 2024 at 9.45 am at Seminar Hall. The aim is to observe Author's Day by conducting a chat with author.

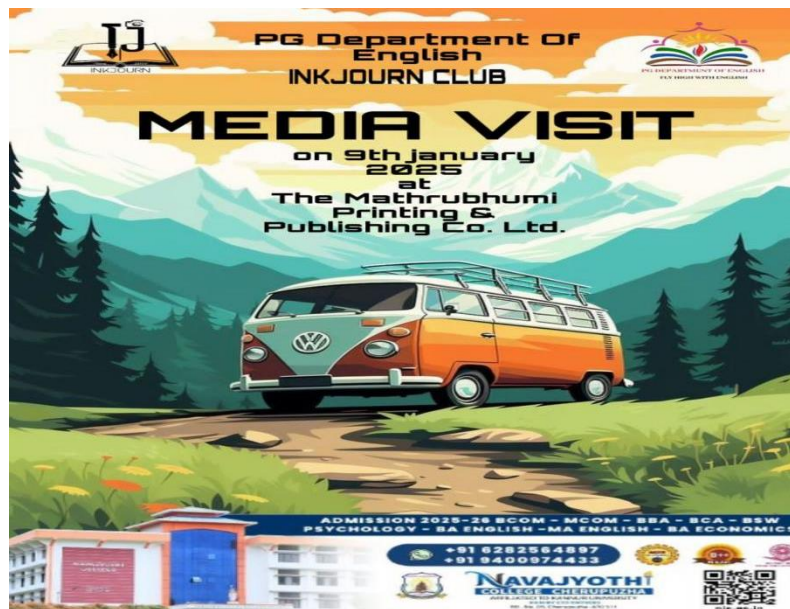

The programme encourages students to read and appreciate literature and to develop a love for reading and creative writing.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome by Mr. Muhammed Minhaj PS (VI Sem, BA English). It was followed by the presidential address of Dr. K K Somasekharan (Principal of Navajyothi College Cherupuzha), followed by felicitations by Fr. Sijoy Paul (Director of Navajyothi College Cherupuzha) and Mrs. Athira C.V (Head of the Department of English). Mike was handed over to the main guest, Mr. V H Nishad (Author, Asst. Professor and HoD of Journalism, Sir Syed College, Thaliparamba). Total 23 students from different Departments and faculty members were present.

Mr. V H Nishad shared the evolvement of his creative career and enriched students with his experience in the field of writing. It was followed by an interactive session ‘chat with author’ which led to the disclose of journey of creative writing and ignited the intrinsic thoughts of the audience. The programme came to an end with the donation of some works by the author to the college library. This session was graced by the presence of Dr. K K Somasekharan (Principal of Navajyothi College Cherupuzha). It was a successful programme which enhanced creative thought and motivation . The author and the audience were involved in the great joy of sharing and imbibing creativity and appreciation.

Media Visit

INKJOURN literary club of the PG Department of English, Navajyothi college has conducted a media visit on 09/01/2025 at Mathrubhumi at Kozhikode. Media visit is conducted as the part of Journalism studies which would enable the students to get a clear idea about the actual function of media. Thirteen students of second year BA English and two faculties attended the programme. The students got an opportunity to view printing process of newspapers and magazine production. Students were asked their doubts to the reporters regarding their profession and functions of newspaper. It was a detailed exploration of newspaper making which involves pre-production, production and post-production processes. It was a memorable experience to the media students.

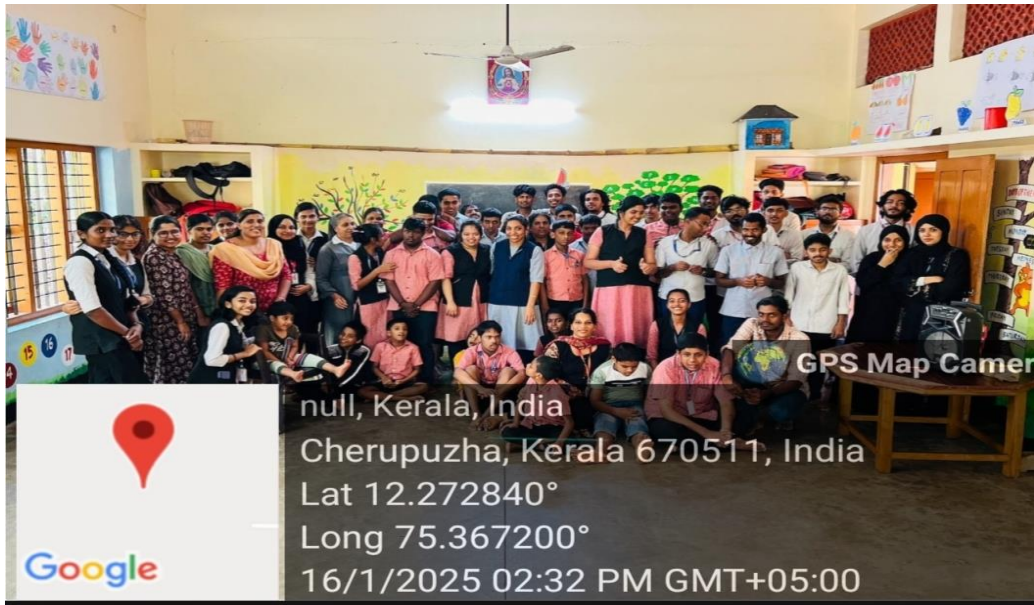

Friendship Forum - Outreach Programme

INKJOURN literary club of the PG Department of English, Navajyothi college has conducted an outreach programme named 'Friendship Forum' on 16/01/2025 at Angel Home Special School, Kundamthadam. The aim of the programme was to encourage socialisation and friendship by conducting recreation activities with specially abled children.

Second year BA English, third year BA English as well as three faculties attended the programme. The students got an opportunity to interact with specially abled children, appreciate their skills and have some joyful moments with them. Students cleared their doubts regarding the function of the school, their daily routines, involvement in extra curricular activities and other socialisation programmes. Total 22 students participated. It was a really memorable experience to the students by seeing the enthusiasm and energetic performance the children.

Skill Development Programme

(MoU)

The PG Department of English conducted a 'Skill Development Programme' for BA English students on January 28, 2025, with the aim of enhancing students knowledge on presentation skills. It was part of MoU signed with Government College Peringome. The resource person for the 2.30-hour program was Mr. Nivin John, Assistant Professor of Journalism at Government College, Peringome. The programme began with a welcome speech by Muhammed Minhaj PS, a third-year BA English student. Resource person shared his insights and examples which lead to the presentations of students themselves. The session concluded with student feedback from Febin Biju, second-year BA English student. The programme came to an end with the vote of thanks of Mrs. Athira CV, Head of PG Department of English. Total 19 students participated in the programme. The session was informative, engaging, and highly beneficial for the students.
